

A Letter to Your Role Model

Reflect on the great heroes in your life.

Ask your residents to think about who inspires them. It can be a famous figure in history or a person who they know. Encourage them to think about how that person has changed the world, in large or small ways.

After reflecting on an inspirational role model, ask residents to write a letter to this person. Using a pen and paper, residents can tap into their emotions and imagine a conversation with someone who is important to them.
