

Memory Snowflakes

Like snowflakes, everyone's holiday memories are unique.

Encourage your residents to create special paper snowflakes and then write a favorite holiday memory on them. Not only will you have fun decorations, but this will also facilitate great conversations!

Fold paper into small triangles and cut designs with scissors to make the snowflakes. After writing a favorite holiday memory on them, ask your residents to share their stories with the group.

Reach out to join our daily live programming community!

stephanie@rendever.com