

Gratitude Chain

Reflect on the year with your residents!

In advance, cut small strips of paper. Then, ask each resident to take a piece of paper and write what they are thankful for on it.

After each resident writes on their paper, have them fold and link the pieces of paper together to form a chain!

At the end of this activity, you will have a beautiful chain of gratitude for your whole community.

Reach out to join our daily live programming community!

stephanie@rendever.com