

Visit Sacred Places

Take your residents to a destination special to their heart.

Ask your residents what place is sacred to them. It may be a place where they attended service or even a park where they took long walks.

Take turns looking up the places they mention and encourage them to share what makes that place special to them.

Who did they go there with?
What is their favorite memory of the place? How often did they go there?

Reach out to join our daily live programming community!

stephanie@render.com