

Write a Holiday Poem

We all have the power to be great poets!

Ask your residents to write a short poem about the holidays or winter.

The poem may be written in any style, and should follow the prompt: "What do the holidays mean to you? How does winter make you feel?"

If your residents feel comfortable, encourage them to share their poems out loud with those around them!

Reach out to join our daily live programming community!

stephanie@render.com