

Family Tree

We all grow in different directions, but our roots remain the same.

Ask your residents to draw a family tree that shows the relationships of their relatives. To the best of their abilities, residents can create a depiction of their family history.

Encourage residents to use color and creativity in these drawings. Your residents may be inspired to call a family member, or they may even want to show others the artwork that they made.

Reach out to join our daily live programming community!

stephanie@render.com